

WINIR Workshop
Regulation and the Common Good

Location: Bartolome House (Moot Court), School of Law, University of Sheffield, Winter Street, Sheffield S3 7ND

10: 30 Welcome

Richard Kirkham, Head of School, School of Law, University of Sheffield

10:45 Panel 1

Chair: Sam Guy (Sheffield)

Richard Craven (Sheffield)

Arguing about rules: reforming government contracting for post-Brexit UK

Arwen Joyce (Leicester)

What drives different regulatory approaches to low -wage migrant worker visa schemes?

Jodi Short (UC Law SF)

In search of the public interest

Adam White (Sheffield)

Private security, quasi-public space and the common good: a regulatory riddle

12:15 Lunch

13:00 Panel 2

Chair: Ding Chen (Sheffield)

Julia Black (LSE)

Regulation and the public good

Tony Prosser (Bristol)

Regulation and the common good: an autobiography

14:30 Coffee

15:00

Panel 3

Chair: Caterina Milo (Sheffield)

David Barrett (Exeter)

Non-economic regulatory justifications and goals

Andromachi Georgosouli (Queen Mary)

The public interest as an imperative of economic regulation and the virtues of conceptual ambiguity

Sabrina Germain (City)

Breaking with the past: a deliberative regulatory approach to address inequalities in accessing healthcare services in England

Sharifah Sekalala (Warwick)

In the shadow of trade: regulating global health law and the promise of reparative justice

16:30

Coffee

17:00

ECR Roundtable Discussion

Jonathan Carrington (RPC)

Anna Hinder (ANU)

Caroline Redhead (Manchester)

Inga Rademacher (City)

18:00

End

